

Elizabeth van Geerestein PhD

Elizabeth van Geerestein is Managing Partner of Papillon & Partners and Vice President of the Leadership Pipeline Institute (LPI).

LPI is the leading global provider of Leadership & Specialist Pipeline solutions to private and public organizations, developing more than 5,000 people per year in Leadership Transition and Specialist Transition Programs. Papillon & Partners specializes in Leadership Coaching, Leadership Development and Leadership Team Development, with a strong emphasis on business and organizational transformation, and developing high-performing (cross)-functional leadership teams across global enterprises.

Papillon & Partners and LPI are represented in over 30 countries, with coaching capabilities in 25 languages and over 100 highly skilled leadership coaches and facilitators on 6 continents.

Papillon & Partners has led the implementation of company-wide integrated leadership development initiatives for global clients in all business sectors extending throughout Europe, North America, Australia, Asia, Middle East and Africa, resulting in performance improvement, margin expansion and gained market share.

Elizabeth is a master-certified C-suite and boardroom coach who coaches senior executives, executive teams and their boards through successful leadership, business and organizational transitions.

As a coach to senior leadership Elizabeth has guided leaders to more effective performance, engagement and collaboration resulting in accomplishment of stretch goals, through extension of influence, and an engaged alignment with critical business initiatives.

Elizabeth coaches' leadership teams to recognize and leverage key differences in style, to develop a more comprehensive vision and effective team processes that elicit each leader's greatest contribution. Outcomes have included creation of high-performance leadership teams, involving enhanced buy-in of major constituents, generating more collaboration, bridging differences and leveraging strengths, with greater accountability to meet business objectives and attain significant direct bottom- and top-line results.

Since 2007, Dr. van Geerestein is the Adjunct Professor Personal Leadership Development (PLD) at Rotterdam School of Management (RSM) Erasmus University, The Netherlands. Elizabeth contributes across all the MBA programs (International, Executive and Global Executive), and designs the Personal Leadership Development curriculum of the OneMBA Global Executive MBA Program.

Elizabeth is co-developer and designer of the highly impactful communications training Voice is Power™ (www.yourvoiceispower.nl)

ABOUT PAPILLON & PARTNERS

Papillon & Partners is a global leadership development training & coaching company that helps the world's leading businesses to grow, innovate and thrive. We provide exceptional professional and personal development, Leadership (team) development, DEI, mentoring and coaching programs. With us, you're constantly evolving and growing. Partnering with us provides a platform for sustainable geometric growth, enhanced productivity, excellent execution and cross-functional leadership and flourishing cultures. We have a powerful commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion. Our global alliance of Coaches and Trainers are culturally and geographically diverse, spanning 4 continents and speaking over 35 languages. Global citizens, in a tightly connected international community.

OUR CLIENTS

Papillon & Partners is proud to work with some of the world's leading organizations. Even though our customers come from all industry sectors, one thing our customers have in common is that they are usually at the leading edge of their respective sectors and, as such, are in search of the very best training solutions available. We frequently work with our customers to execute global initiatives and are experienced in adapting our training programs so that they succeed across diverse markets and cultures.

A selection of our Clients include:

